

Pulaski Citizen.

F. O. McCORD, Local Editor.

PULASKI, TENN.
FRIDAY MORNING, DEC. 7, 1886.

Any one desiring to rent a comfortable house in town next year, may find one advertised this morning.

DISCONTINUED.—The sale of W. H. Robinson's land, advertised in this paper, to be sold on the 11th inst., will not be made.—The advertisement was inserted this week by an oversight in the printer.

$10 Reward.

We will pay the above reward each for files of the Citizen for the years 1880 and 1881, delivered at this office. Be sure to bring them in early. Our files were scattered during the war, and they are of great pecuniary value to us as well as to many parties to suits in Chancery.

COURT.—Circuit court has been in session at this place since last Monday, his Honor Judge Ward on the Bench. The civil docket is full, and many causes have, necessarily, been continued to supply papers. We will spend some time in the court room next week and endeavor to give a summary of the proceedings.

SMITH, PARKES & STARK.—This enterprising Nashville house, after a short disappearance from our columns, again present themselves to the readers of the Citizen for a share of their patronage. The plan adopted by them for the sale of cotton and tobacco is certainly a fair one and must give general satisfaction. Try it.

COTTON.—Those who design shipping cotton to Nashville will be glad to learn, as they may by reference to the card of Messrs. Allen & Hill McAllister in this paper, that they can ship it through to this house now without any trouble by simply making application to the Assistant Assessor of this county, who will grant them permits, and the tax will be paid by these gentlemen at Nashville.

BOOTS & SHOES.—We stepped into the house of our former fellow-citizens, J. M. Winstead & Co., while in Nashville the other day, and were politely shown through their superb stock of boots, shoes, hats, &c. Any lengthy notice of these gentlemen, who are so well known in this community, would be unnecessary, and we simply refer the reader to their card in this paper.

GROCERIES, &c.—JOHN D. FLAULT & Co., in their new advertisement this morning, announce a fresh arrival of choice family groceries, hardware &c. No better stock of goods in their line can be found this side of Nashville, and no more obliging and up-right gentlemen in the world, and we are rejoiced to know that they are receiving that liberal patronage from the people of this community which such liberal business men deserve.

HORSE STEALING.—A little negro boy, apparently about thirteen years old, stole a horse from the premises of Col. Sotox E. Roek last Saturday, and bringing him to town that night, sold him to Maj. Pointer, col., for $30. Maj. smelt a mouse pretty soon and had the horse examined, when he found that he had been taken in. He immediately hunted up the boy and found articles of merchandise in his possession for which he had paid out the money, which Maj. took possession of and recovered most of his cash. The boy was handed over to the Sheriff. We learn that three other horses were missing from this vicinity about the same time, but we have not learned the particulars.

NEW PROPOSALS.

Every Citizen of the County Interested.

We design enlarging and greatly improving the Citizen next year, provided we can increase our patronage enough to justify the expense of doing so.

And in order to interest every philanthropist in the county, we make the following proposals:

We will give to the new College enterprise $500, provided those interested in it shall raise us 500 new subscribers, at the regular cash price, or $1 for each new subscriber thus obtained over 25.

The same proposition is extended to the Ladies' Benevolent Association, to supply maimed Confederates with artificial limbs. Societies and organizations accepting this proposition will each designate or appoint some responsible agent through whose hands all moneys and subscribers will come to us.

Ex-Rebel soldiers, who have lost the use of a limb in the "Lost cause," will be supplied with the Citizen at half price.

We ask their comrades and friends to aid us in giving them limbs by procuring as many subscribers as possible for the Citizen by the 1st of January.

We promise you a large, well printed news, business and family journal, devoted to education, religion, constitutional liberty, national unity and the welfare of our town, county, State and country.

Our readers will readily acknowledge the liberality of this proposition, when they reflect that we thus propose to donate 25 per cent. of our income to educational and benevolent purposes.

Who will bring us the first installment of twenty-five subscribers?

Attention is invited to the advertisement of the St. Louis Mutual Life Insurance Company in this paper. Ezell & Edmundson are the agents at this place.

PROFESSIONAL.—Several new professional cards appear in the Citizen to-day, which we refer to in the order in which they were handed in, beginning with that of Col. D. W. HOLMAN, Fayetteville, Tenn., favorably known to a great many of the citizens of Giles county as the commander of the 11th Tenn. cavalry. The Col., having done all he could to settle our late difficulties in the field, again offers his services to his friends to assist them in settling their matters of dispute in a more civil way. We recommend him as a prompt and attentive attorney.

CARRIGAN & WHITTHORNE, Fayetteville, Tenn., present themselves to the people of Giles for a share of their legal business. Mr. CARRIGAN is the able Senator from that district, and enjoys the reputation of being an able lawyer. We desire, in this connection, to thank him for the many courtesies extended to us while on a recent visit to the capital, and recommend him to litigants in Giles and other counties.

J. C. LESTER, Esq., announces himself ready to attend to all business entrusted to him, and, we doubt not, he will do so with his usual attentiveness and promptitude.

Last Monday, the first of the month and the first of the circuit court now in session, was a very rainy, muddy, sloppy, disagreeable day. We made several efforts to stir out among the people to get matter for an interesting local, but were each time driven in doors by the pelting rain and muddy streets. There was a very large crowd in attendance, but very little out-door business of any sort was transacted. The crowd dispersed at an early hour in the afternoon, some thoroughly wet, inside and out. One old freedman in front of this office was so full of "wetness" that he had to make three desperate efforts before he succeeded in mounting his critter.

MARRIED.—At the Presbyterian church, in Franklin, Tenn., Nov. 29th, by the Rev. Mr. Cunningham, Mr. Wm. R. EWING to Miss JOHNNIE BROWN, all of Williamson county, Tenn.
